EMPOWERING MILITARY★WOMEN

Including Veterans, Reservists, Soon-to-be Civilians & Military Spouses*

When: Monday, October 9, 2017

Time: 8 a.m. – 5 p.m.

Where: Kiyo Sakaguchi Hall – Prudential Tower, Newark, NJ

Keynote Speaker: Michele McManamon, Operation New Uniform, Co-Founder

- Resume Writing Workshop
- Take Ownership of Your Career
- Mentoring & Coaching
- Is Your Financial House in Order
- Leveraging LinkedIn
- Job Search Tips
- Professional Wardrobe on a Budget
- and much more!

Prudential, in partnership with like-minded companies and nonprofits that honor the service of military personnel, is proud to offer a military women's professional day of development. We will bring together military women (veterans recently separated from the military, those who have been working in the private sector, student veterans, reservists, and military spouses), and enable them to share their experiences, learn from each other, prepare for a transition into a new position, build professional skills, and strengthen their network.

The day features a keynote speaker, panel discussion with leading veterans and a military spouse, and multiple workshops filled with rich and valuable content.

This will be a packed day from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., with many workshops to choose from, as well as a light breakfast and lunch included. In addition, receive a professional headshot, and valuable one-on-one feedback from recruiters and human resource professionals who will give advice on resumes, LinkedIn profiles, or conduct mock interviews on a first-come, first-served basis.

There is no charge for attendance, but there are a limited number of spots available. We look forward to your participation and engagement! For more information, please contact Regina Alston: regina.alston@prudential.com.

Morristown Medical Center's 3rd Pet Therapy Conference: Dogs Serving Our Military and Our Community

Thursday, November 9, 2017 • 8:00am to 4:00pm

Hyatt Regency Morristown, 3 Speedwell Ave., Morristown, NJ 07960 • 973-647-1234

Keynote Speaker: Jay Kopelman, author of From Baghdad with Love

Lieutenant Colonel Jay Kopelman began his military career in the U.S. Navy in 1985 and transferred to the Marine Corps in 1992.

In 2004, Marines entered an abandoned house in Fallujah, Iraq, and hearing a suspicious noise, they clenched their weapons, edged around the corner, and prepared to open fire. What they found was not an insurgent, but a puppy left behind when most of the city's residents fled.

Thus began the dramatic rescue of a dog named Lava. "From Baghdad with Love" tells the unforgettable true story of an unlikely band of heroes who learned unexpected lessons about life, death and war from a mangy little flea-ridden refugee.

Learning Objectives:

1. Recognize the bond between humans and their animals
2. Describe the effect of dogs in, and after military combat
3. Define the important ways in which our pets play vital roles in our military and our community
4. Summarize some ways Atlantic Health System is involved with Animal-Assisted Therapy/Pet Therapy
5. Explain various roles of dogs in our community (e.g. guide dogs, ADA support, glucose monitoring, cancer detection)
