WASHINGTON — Applications Now Open for High Ground Veterans Advocacy Fellowship

High Ground Veterans Advocacy is now accepting applications for the Fellowship Class of January 2018. Now in its second year, the organization was recognized as one of the top new non-profits on the prestigious HillVets 100 list. Members of the 2017 fellowship classes have inspired new legislation at the local and federal level, have been invited to become advisors to members of Congress, have led national movements around their policy proposals, received other prestigious fellowships, and have found permanent employment with organizations dedicated to serving veterans.

“We’re looking for veterans who want nothing more than to improve the lives of servicemembers, veterans and their families,” said Kris tofer Goldsmith, founder of High Ground Veterans Advocacy. “High Ground’s training empowers our Fellows to take a good policy idea, and to turn it into a movement.”

Applicants are required to complete an online application at <https://www.highgroundvets.org/apply/>, and to submit supporting documents to applications@highgroundvets.org by the October 31, 2017 deadline.
